

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
HUGH ROBINSON,
Defendant.

Case No. 15-cr-00252-JSW-1

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Re: Dkt. No. 752

On August 8, 2018, Hugh Robinson, pro se, filed a motion to vacate his sentence under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The Ninth Circuit affirmed his conviction on July 22, 2018. Mr. Robinson seeks to vacate his sentence on the grounds of ineffective assistance of counsel, the government's failure to disclose exculpatory evidence, evidentiary issues, and violations of his due process rights. This claim appears colorable under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 and merits an answer from the Government.

In general, this Court has required the Government to file an opposition within 75 days after the Section 2255 motion was filed. Accordingly, the following deadlines will apply, unless the parties submit a stipulation and proposed order for a modified briefing schedule: (1) the Government shall file an opposition conforming in all respects to Rule 5 of the Rules Governing Section 2255 Proceedings on or before October 22, 2018, showing cause why the Court should not "vacate, set aside or correct the sentence" being served by Mr. Robinson; (2) Mr. Robinson shall file a reply brief 30 days after the opposition is filed.

Thereafter, the matter will be deemed submitted on the papers, unless the Court orders otherwise.
